Lodge Notes and Fraternal Interests

Odd Fellows Labor Day Picnic—Neosha Club Opens Whist Season—Elks to Hear of Los Angeles Convention—Fall Campaign Started by Royal Arcanum—Foresters Plan Social Programme.

ODD FELLOWS.

Members of the order from all over the state will be assembled Monday at the Fairview home, Groton, for the annual Labor Day picnic, when the three lodges will have an opportunity to fraternize with their brothers and sister Rebekahs from all parts of the jurisdiction. The attendance annually reaches about 500 men, and the prospects are that it will be fully up to that this year.

The picnic is arranged on the basketball court of the Odd Fellows and their families, with coffee and chowder served at dinner time. A programme of sports is to be carried out this year and is expected to be a big feature of the day, the events being run off in the morning and afternoon under the auspices of a committee consisting of P. J. Hope (chairman), P. Q. Smith, and John A. Palmer. There are to be two games in all events except quoits, in which there is one, and there will be no prize for the ball game or tug of war. Tug of war will be a contest. The other athletic events will be as follows: Tug of war, quoits, shoe race, potato race, 100 yard dash, spoon race for ladies, 50 yard footrace for ladies, sack race, three legged race and fat men's race.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

The leaders of the Royal Arcanum in the state of Connecticut were assembled Monday in the regular session of the annual conference at Hill's Homestead, West Haven for the purpose of outlining a campaign for membership during the fall and winter.

With the exception of four of the grand council officers, all were in attendance at this session, together with representatives from 17 councils in this state. George A. Smith represented Norwich council, No. 720.

Adelard Morris represented Thames lodge, No. 1831 and Past Grand Regent W. E. Casfield with Grator George W. Adams of Norwich council also attended the session.

The meeting was called to order at 1 o'clock by Oscar L. Burdick, grand regent of the state, and at 1.30 all sat down to a dinner prepared by Mr. St. Lawrence at the "Old" Hill's Homestead.

The roll of councils was called, and after a few remarks by the grand regent, Past Grand Regent Edward Becker of the state of New York was introduced as the speaker. He addressed the representatives present, explaining changes of the supreme council and encouraging those present to take vigorous action during the next six months toward increasing the membership of this grand jurisdiction, so that the year end of the year Connecticut might stand among those grand jurisdictions entitled to honorable mention by the supreme regent.

Supreme Regent Charles H. Bowen was expected from Rhode Island, but in the morning a telegram was received announcing his inability to attend. These conferences have been held for several years and the grand council officers have been able to get more closely in touch with the active workers of the state in this way.

All of the living past grand regents of Connecticut were present with one exception, and it was a source of pleasure to many who had been active in leadership during the past 20 years, still maintaining their interest in the organization.

The meeting adjourned at 5 o'clock, in time for all present to take the evening trains for their respective homes.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS.

The Neosha club held their first home whist on Thursday afternoon and evening with the president, Nellie Kinn. A baked bean supper was served. At the evening whist was played. At the six tables the prize winners were the following: First lady's, Anna Edmonds, cake plate, 35; second, Mary Mueller, bon bon dish, 32; first gentleman's, Lewis N. Carpenter, cup and saucer, 27; second, George H. Stanton, shaving mug, 26; consolation, Mary Ann Harvey and Mary J. Whitting, who took male parts. They will hold another in a couple of weeks.

The club will begin a series of whist events that will be held in Foresters hall during the winter, the first one to be held on Sept. 27.

ODD FELLOWS, MANCHESTER UNITY.

Loyal Hugh, a good lodge, No. 6920, which meets in Ponemah hall, Taftville, is planning for a season that will be active and full of interest in the coming months. At their meeting a week ago there was a good attendance and plans were discussed for the campaign this fall.

REBEKAHS.

The regular meeting of Hope lodge, No. 21, was held Wednesday evening in Odd Fellows hall. Noble Grand Grace Willey presiding over a well attended meeting. The routine business was disposed of and Sister Lulu Palmer was busy with arranging for her assistants at the Odd Fellows' home on Labor day. She is in charge of the tables and coffee and ten women from each of the Rebekah lodges in the district are to be delegated as her assistants. They expect a busy time in the serving of the dinner for 500 at the Odd Fellows' home on the annual picnic which is always a feature of Labor day. The lodge members from here will go down on the 9 o'clock train in the morning.

Hope lodge is expecting to have work in a month or two, as several of the members have candidates promised, and it is hoped to have some applications by the next meeting.

ELKS.

Norwich lodge, No. 420, held its regular meeting Thursday evening in Pythian hall. Exalted Ruler William R. Stevens presiding. Past Exalted Ruler Nelson J. Ayling, who was the representative of the lodge to the grand lodge at Los Angeles, was present to give his report, but as the attendance was small this was put over till the next meeting. The lodge has now resumed its regular meetings twice a month after the summer recess, when only one a month is held.

P. E. R. Nelson J. Ayling, Thomas H. Crawford and P. E. R. Edward S. Sincley were named as the Memorial day committee to arrange for the service which is annually held on the first Sunday in December.

ORU-R OF PROTECTION.

Bush lodge of New London made its basket picnic at Richards' grove last Wednesday a very enjoyable occasion for the many present during the day, the numbers being largely increased during the evening. Grand Secretary Jeremiah Wall came from New Haven for the evening hours and there were a number from the two Norwich lodges present during the day. A chowder of the first class was served at noon. In the evening an orchestra played for dancing.

An exciting programme of athletic sports was held in which the following were the prize winners and prizes: 150 yard dash for men—R. H. Small, prize pocket knife.
50 yard dash for women—Mrs. May Whiting, embroidery.
50 yard egg race—Mrs. Ellen O'Connell, pair gold lace pins.
Boat race—R. H. Small, shaving brush.
Potato race—L. C. Jewett, pair pocket shears.
50 yard dash for boys—Timothy Sullivan, pocket knife.
50 yard dash for girls—Miss Della Shea, silver shoe horn.
50 yard wheelbarrow race—Mrs. May Whiting, cut glass salt and pepper shakers.

The committee in charge comprised Mrs. James Vickers, chairman, Mrs. John Bergin, W. D. Beckwith and James Archer.

FORESTERS.

Friday evening in Foresters hall Court City of Norwich, No. 63, held its regular monthly meeting, attended by a large number as it was the first business meeting to be held after the summer vacation. Four candidates were initiated, being put through the second degree by the newly organized degree.

After two years had passed the financial secretary made a report showing the amount of money that had been paid out for medicines and doctors' fees. The amount was a matter of great surprise to the members as since the court was organized it has paid out for medicines alone $20.00. In the near future the court intends to have socials for the members alone, and for the public, and to be appointed at the next meeting. The idea is to give every member a chance to arrange for a different kind of social, thereby obtaining a great variety of social evenings.

Master Hooker Surprised. Some of the children of Poquetanuck gave the rector of St. James' church, Rev. W. E. Hooker, a surprise party, on Wednesday evening assembling at a nearby dwelling, they proceeded to the rectory, where a very pleasant evening was passed.

Some gifts for the rector were a feature of the visit, and were very much appreciated. All was planned and carried out by two or three of the boys of the place.

Mystic.—Thursday afternoon was the last of the half holidays for the summer of 1909, which has been thoroughly enjoyed by the grocers' clerks.
